II. Kp. 7:3

"why sit we here until we die?" This question was asked by one of a quartet of Lepers.

These Lepers were having a meeting at gate of the city of Samaria. The city was being besieged by the army of Syria, etc. — Lepers were first to feel it.

From this group there comes a lesson to us we are interested in them not because they are —

1. Aristocrats
2. wealthy

But for their common cause.

These men because of common cause came to wise conclusions:

1. They resolved to act. Empty talk never do but to act by deed.

2. Any action better than no action. They knew that the supreme failure was to be so afraid of failing that they would do nothing at all.

Look at an old question { How shall we escape if we neglect our great salvation? }
How shall I escape if I leave my friend alone? No escape. (2d. Macc. vi. 26) He did not storm because he destroyed all good, of Israel & England.

How shall I escape if I neglect all mental development?

unirriguous. why am I not a musician? It is not because I killed all the musicians etc. you may want to etc.

you can't become a Billy Jones by neglecting yourself. you can't become proficient in ball or mumblepeg by just letting it alone. And yet people do act as tho they think they can become prominent Christians by letting church alone.

After deciding to act the important thing was what they would do. Since they decided to move two roads lay out B.4.
thru.

- a. Into the city to store
- b. Into enemies camp with 900 to our chance of dying.

Is: not because we can overcome
" " " they are our friends
" " " invited us as guests

The only reason for going is that it is not absolutely certain that they will kill us
if we go.

They go - enter first tent. us are there. They find whole camp deserted.

They eat - feed themselves - by risking themselves & everything they got all they needed.

Why do we not act as much wisdom?
we are not to throw ourselves on a enemy but you are asked to trust your self to a Friend Jesus. you are invited

"Come for all things are now ready."
would it mean anything for me to come? will it mean anything to you not to try? Prodigal did not look for much.

They said now we are eating shabby - day of good tidings.
