

God's relationship to man.

1. God made man. man had nothing to do with the making. God was the first cause and the instrumentality by which man came into the world. He is known as Creator, and Father.

2. He has duties toward man. we talk of our duties to God. We may also talk of God's duties to us. God has blessed you with fatherhood. This means that your child owes all to you and that you owe nothing to it.

3. He has the faculty of revelation. In this reality He is not a being that any one can see. No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son which is in the bosom of the Father He hath declared Him. John, 1:18.

4. God loves each human being and has since the race was created. He has tried to reveal Himself to all people. It is not a recent thing that God has tried to get Himself over to man kind.

Jesus is the Light that lighteth every man coming into the world.

This is demonstrated by
1. The heathen religions. we must not criticize heathen religions.

because they are built up out of longings, impressions, and experiences as such as people are able to have whose ancestry strayed away from the Bible and who had not heard of the Christ living in human form.

The holiest verse of the Bible scriptures reads as follows; "Let us adore the supremacy of that divine, the God head who illuminates all, who recreates all; from whom all proceed; to whom all must return; whom we invoke to direct our understandings aright in our progress toward His Holy seat" Jesus was fighting that man.

The Greeks had many idols and many altars but they had one altar to "The unknown God". Jesus was fighting those Greeks, Jesus had household gods, Eloheim.

2. Hebrews, we speak of the Jews as the "chosen people", when they were highest in their religion - God loved us Gentiles as much as He did them. Now when our Rel. occupies mind, a high
