

The Chapter of the Incuables
Three Examples.
Chpater V.

This chapter is known as the chapter of the INCURABLES.

I. A man who was possessed of devils. He secluded himself in a cemetery, cut himself with stones cried day and night. He was community nuisance. Sin was doing for him just what it will do for any one who indulges in it.

Men tried to bind him and bring him to his senses but they were powerless to do any thing with him. One day Jesus met him. The devils began to beg Jesus not to send them away. There is no devil in this community that wants to leave. They said "If you just will send us away let us go into the hogs." Jesus bade them go. The hogs were ashamed to have the devils in them and ran in to the water and drowned themselves before they would have the devils in them. Some of us are not so particular. Some old scoundrels will go down town and fill his belly so full of beer that he can hardly walk and then take pride in walking out before decent people and brag about what a big Christian he is.

After Jesus got through with him he wanted to go with Jesus but Jesus wanted him to go back to his community and his home and there reorder his life.

I can see him going home..children running from him.. But when he speaks his wife is not afraid because he has a tender voice.

2. Second example was a woman. Had seen all the doctors..none could heal. She only touched His garment and was made whole.

3. The third was a little girl who was dead. Jesus went in and said, "Damsel arise" and she sat up. Some one has said that if He had said "Arise" there would have been a general resurrection. But He specified Damsel arise. What loved ones and doctors could not do He did in all these cases.

Now I want us to turn this around and see it from another angle.

1. He is a mans savior. This man broke all the chains but Jesus tamed him. Men are flocking to Him today in the mens classes.
2. He was a womans Savior. No class should be more grateful to Jesus than women. Whereever Christianity has gone woman has been elevated.
3. He was a childs Savior. I thank God for a Savior that little children are flocking to to day. He is their salvation.

Illustration. Little girl and the mother's scar.
"I am going to be better to you now since I see how much you have done for me."
