

Where do you live?
Matt 6:19-21

not long ago I met a man and he asked, "where do you live?" I replied, "Lansville miss," that seemed to satisfy him.

I wonder all times if I told the real truth where do you live? That depends on what you count to be the facts about your fundamental being - put emphasis on your body and the question is easy.

But if you hold that you are something more than flesh - the question broadens.

where do you live when sitting in church ⁽²⁾ on Sunday? In body right there, But if you are heart and mind - Holy Communion? Mount Zion? at the movie? at the dance? Paris said our ~~a ship is in heaven~~
where does the mother live whose boy has been ~~arrested for murder~~? whose son is in a hospital over seas? or the child whose reading is only comic books?

WHERE - DO you live? JESUS gives the answer - "where your treasure is, there will your heart be also" ^{we live where our hearts} ^{are and our hearts are} ^{where our treasure is}

Though we live in a mansion bodily our real selves may live in garbage dumps (3)

or you may live bodily in grinning toil and shabby housing it may be true that you really live among the truly things of God.
(God) have to find out what a person likes to think about

But in all these things where do you really strike fire??

It has ever been that Christians, ^{see that} that in Jesus we have the examples of what life should be

we see in Jesus (part)

purity - unselfishness - understanding (4)
