

PRAISE,
P.S. 150
" 100

We may admire a person and keep it very quietly. We may honor a person very unostentatiously. But when it comes to praising one there is a running over of the soul.

I. Where are we to praise Him?

- a. In His sanctuary. The sanctuary is just connected up with the Godly life. When one is really Godly he or she when able to do so thinks of nothing else than going up to the house of God on Sunday. I have never seen an auditorium with beds in it. It must not be a place for sleepers.
- b. In the firmament of His power. On the earth on your trip to Mars, in the air under the earth or any where else that may be thought of praise Him.

II. For what shall we praise Him?

- a. For His mighty acts. Creation, preservation and redemption.
- b. For His excellent greatness

III. With what shall we praise Him?

- a. Sound of the trumpet
- b. Psaltry and harp
- c. Timbrel
- d. Dance
- e. Stringed instruments
- f. Organs
- g. Loud sounding cymbals
- h. High sounding cymbals

IV. What is to praise Him? Every thing that hath breath. Greatest evidence of our true praise to Him is living a pure clean life.

