

Rom. 12:3

Three things largely determine the achievement of life.

1. Heredity - determinant capacity & adaptability.
2. Environment is responsible for the degree to which we respond to the constructive urge of our being.
3. Self-appraisal of our acquired resources determines the length of the road we will travel not in years but constructive accomplishment.

A man's estimate of himself measure his art reach - Hence the same estimate of ourselves is important.

a. Do not over estimate

b. Know the horizon of your soul.

Then how ought a man to think of himself?

1. Creating work of God. A Creature of - Glory - power - Capacity.
2. In regard to stewardship - not proven by argument but by the grace
3. An ambassador for God.
